HORROR IN AN ASYLUM

Fire Destroys the Tennessee Hospital.

SIX OF THE PATIENTS CREMATED.

But Few Details of the Horror Obtainable—Many of the Unfortunates Make Their Escape from the Institution.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 14.—A fire broke out at the Central insane asylum, seven miles from this city, on the Murfreesboro pike, at about 11 o'clock Friday night. It started in the rear of the male wing, which has already been destroyed, and the flames continue unchecked. Two fire-engines have been started from here, and, it is thought, will arrive in time to save some of the building. The cause of the fire is unknown. There were twenty-eight patients in the wing and six of them were cremated. There were about 400 patients in the main building. There is no reason to fear a realization of the danger of loss of life. At 3 a. m. the main building was reported on fire. The patients were escaping. Gov. Buchanan and the state militia were preparing to go to the scene immediately in a special train.

The list of the dead are as follows:
J. S. Johns, Rutherford county; J.
Burt Dexter, Wilson county; Blue Preston, Cannon county; John Kelly, Wayne county; W. H. Beasley, Hickman county; H. F. Holloway, Davidson county.

DEADLY REVENGE.

A Man Travels All the Way from California to Kill the Betrayer of His Sister
at Grinnell, Ia.

GRINNELL, Ia., March 14.—A little after noon Friday Edward J. Ricker was shot and killed by Gil Braden, formerly of Brooklyn, but recently from California. The evidence before Coroner McGinn showed Braden entered the office of Newby & Parker's lively stable and fired two shots, one passing through Ricker's body from behind,
cutting the artery near the heart.
Ricker ran from the office into the stable and fell among the horses, Braden following and firing again, but missing. Braden ran out to a lumber yard to hide, was followed and gave himself up. He admitted that he killed Ricker and that he had come here for that purpose, saying Ricker had ruined his sister five years ago and brought his mother almost to the grave;
that God had told him to kill Ricker.
Braden seemed cool and expressed satisfaction at killing Ricker. Braden is unmarried and his sister is in a house of ill repute. Ricker leaves a wife and two children about 5 and 8 years old.

Death of a Well-Known Lawyer.

DETROIT, Mich., March 14.—D. Bethune Duffield, one of the oldest members of the Detroit bar, died here Thursday night, aged 70. He was of the Yale class of 1840, had been associated for years in law practice with the ex-minister to Russia, Mr. Lothrop, and was foremost in the organization of the Detroit school system. On his mother's side he was a relative of William E. Gladstone. Mr.
Duffield had been for nearly fifty years
a practicing lawyer in Detroit.

Enveloped in Burning Oil.

CLEVELAND, O., March 14.—Mrs.
William Baker, living near Fostoria,
O., attempted Friday morning to light
a fire with kerosene, when the can exploded, completely enveloping her with burning oil. She jumped into a bed and wrapped herself in the clothing, but she was so badly burned that she died in a short time. The bed was also destroyed and a little child severely burned, but the child will recover. The mother was only 24 years old.

Jersey and the American Rep.

BERLIN, March 14.—In the reichstag
Friday Dr. von Boetticher, vice president of the ministry of state, replying to Herr Barth, said that the new sanitary measures adopted in the United States were inadequate, and that therefore the government did not intend to renew the prohibition placed upon the importation of American hog products.

Failure at Oshkosh, Wis.

OSHKOSH, Wis., March 14.—Late Thursday afternoon G. C. Griffith, trunk manufacturer, assigned to K. M.
Hutchinson. Liabilities estimated at $15,000; assets, $25,000. An effort to do a large business with a small capital given as a leading cause for the assignment.

Died at the Age of 108.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., March 14.—Mrs.
Hannah Cleveland-King died at her home at Inotisco, near here, Friday morning, aged 103 years. She was a distant relative of ex-President Cleveland, and was proud of the fact. She retained an apparently fair degree of physical health to the last.

To Prevent the Indians Securing Arms.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 13.—Acting
Gov. Barber has issued a proclamation enjoining citizens to refrain from selling arms to the Indians. This was done on the request of Gen. Miles, who says the Indians can be handled easily if not supplied with rifles.

California's Senatorial Deadline.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 14.—The ballot in the legislature Friday morning for United States senator resulted:
Ester, 34; DeYoung, 34; Felton, 15;
Blanchard, 11; Johnston, 4; Wetmore,
1. The democrats gave their twenty-six votes to Blanchard.

Struck by a Train.

CHICAGO, March 14.—The west Chicago avenue patrol wagon, containing three officers and ten prisoners, was struck by a train at a crossing on the Chicago & Northwestern road Friday evening and three of the occupants were badly hurt.

The Failure Record.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The business failures occurring throughout the country during the last seven days number 273, as compared with a total of 265
last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 253.

How do you manage to get through that crowd? I had to wait for half an hour.

PARNELL'S APPEAL.

He Issues a Manifesto to the Irish in America—Full Text of the Document.

LONDON, March 14.—Mr. Parnell has just made public his long expected manifesto. The full text of the document follows:

"HOUSE OF COMMONS, Friday, March 13—
To the Irish People of America, Fellow Countrymen: In 1880 and subsequent years you assisted me powerfully by your influence upon American public opinion and with your generous financial support to create the great movement of the land league. Without your aid no freely given and no constantly maintained Ireland could not for one moment have made head against her oppressors. Still less could she have attained the singular position of power and the promise of a future she has occupied during the last five years. At the instant when victory seemed near and certain, the hasty and meddlesome interference of English politicians in the complex organization of our party, aided by a sudden movement among some young law recruits, eagerly seconded by a few malcontents,
office-seekers and crass persons who crept into our ranks, temporarily destroyed the unity of our forces and sapped the independence of many Irish representatives.

"It now becomes my task to restore this unity and reconstruct our movement, looting off all unsound materials, taking effectual precautions against the admission in the future
into our army of any weak, treacherous, self-seeking elements. Fortune has unveiled this danger and given space for this reconstruction before the general election, and the disclosure has brought about a realization of the insufficiency of Mr. Gladstone's proposed solution of the situation to secure legitimate liberty, happiness and prosperity of your brothers and sisters in Ireland.
This disclosure was timely and all-important.

"The delegates who at my request are now crossing the ocean to your shores are well qualified with experience, ability and patriotism to fully explain and defend my position, which all that is sound, courageous and reliable at home have assumed with me at this crisis. I commend them to your hospitality and I am confident that you will extend to them the most favorable reception and hearing. They are each and all well-tried soldiers who have constantly distinguished themselves in our war against coercion and British misrule, and who, despite intimidation and influences of the most unscrupulous and far-reaching character, have bravely defended this unity and integrity to Ireland. It is to this cause that I appeal to you to assist me in quelling this mutiny and to Ireland. It is to help me in securing a really independent parliamentary party so that we may make one voice, even though it be very last, effort to win freedom and prosperity for our nation by constitutional means.

"Your faithful servant,
"CHARLES SWARTZ PARNELL."

SILVER THE GREAT ISSUE.

Senator Carlisle Indicates the Probable Fighting Lines of the Coming President.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Senator John G. Carlisle is of the opinion that the silver issue will be the principal issue of the next presidential campaign.

In an interview he said:
"It would not be surprising if a certain element in the democratic and republican parties in portions of the north, west and south should stand together in support of the same candidate on that issue. I take it that the states of Virginia, Alabama, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, California and the bulk of the states which have the electoral votes are with the republicans, the probabilities are there will be no election by the people. The house would have to elect in that case, and the democrats would win.

"The next political campaign will undoubtedly be full of surprises on account of the activity of the Farmers' Alliance. This body will show more strength in the next congress than is anticipated by the returns, for, while the farmers claim eight members, it is well enough to concede them the votes of at least twenty whose election was due in part, if not wholly to promises made to the alliance. As a political power I believe the alliance will make itself felt in the next campaign."

A DRUNKEN WRETCH.

He Murders a Woman in Cold Blood at Olive, O.

CALDWELL, O., March 14.—Mrs.
Joseph Graham was murdered at Olive Thursday night by Elmer Johnson.
Mr. Graham has a general store in the village and left it in charge of his wife and son, aged 17, while he went to Janesville. About 7:30 p. m. Johnson went into the store drunk and took a lead-pencil from the boy. Nothing was said until the boy needed the pencil and asked Johnson for it. The fellow began cursing young Graham, when his mother told Johnson to go out. He refused to do so and she took him by the arm to lead him out when he whipped out his knife and cut her throat. Johnson also cut a man named McThoria in four places, but not seriously, while the latter was trying to take the knife from him. The mur-derer is lodged in jail.

Breaking Away from Britain.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., March 14.—A speech of Mr. Dibbs before the Australian federation convention in this city, in which he declared that the ultimate destiny of Australia is to become a republic allied to Great Britain, has caused wide comment and much excitement. The strongest evidence of this is found in the fact that his declaration has already inspired the formation of many republican clubs.

Archbishop Kater's Appointment.

MILWAUKEE, March 14.—The papal brief, accompanied by a letter of explanation, appointing Bishop Kater
archbishop of the diocese of Milwaukee, reached him Thursday from Rome.
The ceremony of conferring the pallium will take place in this city in a few weeks and will be conducted by Cardinal Gibbons.

A Banker Robbed.

OSARK, Ark., March 14.—James
Sewell, president of the Arkansas Valley bank of this city, was robbed
by two men who crowded against him in a passenger coach in Texas Thursday of $1,049 in bank notes. He was on his way to southern Texas for his health.

Anti-Chinese Legislation.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—The legislature has passed a bill prohibiting the coming of Chinese into California, and providing for the registration of all Chinese now in the state and the deportation of all Chinese criminals, including Chinese unlawfully here.

Disastrous Fire at Arkansas City.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., March 14.—A.
A. Newman's handsome residence, just completed, but not yet occupied, was destroyed by fire Thursday night.
The house was valued at $50,000; insured for $40,000. The fire was evidently of incendiary origin.

Dick Croker is also an inveterate dry smoker, but since his recent sickness has had to abstain from the weed.

Congressman Amos J. Cummings is a devoted lover of the weed and never refuses a cigar. He likes an American cigar better than the imported ones and smokes from ten to fifteen of them a day.
William K. Vandenberg smokes a special brand which he has imported from Cuba.
Each cigar has a golden band around it upon which is Mr. Vandenberg's coat of arms. At wholesale in Cuba they cost him 25 cents each.

TEN LYNCHED.

New Orleans Assassins Taken From Jail and Killed By a Mob.

The Finding of a Criminal Court Overruled by Pop- ular Tribunal.

Chief Hennessy's Murderers, Though Acquitted, Not Allowed to Escape.

Italians' Rejoicing Over the Result of the Trial Sud- denly Interrupted.

NEW ORLEANS, March 14.—[Special.]— Acquitted in a court of law, Chief of Police Hennessy's slayers paid the penalty of their crime at the hands of a mob.

Joseph P. Macbeth, Antonio Marchese, Antonio Bagetto, Angeri Marchese (the boy), Bastiano Insarone, Charles Mar-rango, Mistral, Manuel Polit, Pietro Monasterio, Antonio Scaffidi, all died at the end of a rope or were shot by the infatuated populace this morning.

The mob were determined, and there was no holding them back. The jail was quickly broken open, and with a shout of triumph the infuriated mob seized the murderous Italians and hustled them into the street, where they were all either shot or hanged.

Ever since the acquittal of the murderous Italians public feeling has been wrought up to the highest pitch. The report of acquittal was a great surprise to the judge and the lawyers of the state.
The sheriff had cleared the courtroom of all but the lawyers, reporters and court attendants. The result, when it came known to the great crowd in waiting in the streets, was received first with incredulous denial, but as its truth was assured the air was torn with shouts of rage and derision. The jurymen with a scared look on their faces lost themselves in the crowd as soon as possible. Some apprehended violence, but, fortunately, none was offered.

The committee of fifty was called together Friday night to consider the matter. The evening papers published extras proclaiming that the jury had been corrupted. There were some joyful manifestations on the part of the Sicilian residents. As soon as the verdict became known Italian people began to appear along the levee and by night hundreds were there. The accused were sent back to the parish prison.

The District Attorney declared he should investigate the alleged bribing of the jury. It is known that large sums of money have been received and expended by the defense; it is estimated as high as $75,000 or $100,000.

Italians all over the country were made to contribute. Two dollars apiece was taxed upon Italian farm laborers and paid. Thousands of dollars came from New York and Chicago and every day brings in more collections. Thomas J. Semmes, the lawyer, loaned the use of his name to the cause for, it alleged, a $10,000 fee.

All Italian schooners and luggers in port, and they are numerous, are de- corated with flags in honor of the ver- dict.

STRUNG UP TO A TREE.

A Tennessee Mob Waited Till Their Victim Got Well Before Hanging Him.

MILAN, Tenn., March 14.—The sequence of a fearful crime took place Wednesday night about four miles north of Lawrenceburg, Tenn. Last Christmas Miss Angie Belton, a 16-year-old girl, was dragged from her home and criminally assaulted by a neighbor named Henry Sanders, aged 30. A posse was organized to lynch Sanders, but he escaped to Texas, where he remained till a few days ago. He was taken sick while in Texas and came home last week in order that he might receive the care of his family. The relatives of the girl waited until he had recovered from his illness, and on Wednesday night a mob went to his home, dragged him from his bed, and, heedless of the screams of his mother and sisters, hanged him to the limb of a tree within 300 yards of his house.

Only Three Were Saved.

LONDON, March 14.—The unknown
steamship wrecked off Start point Monday was the Miranda, from Liverpool. The crew attempted to reach shore in two boats, but both were swamped and only four reached land,
one of whom died of exhaustion soon afterward.

Funds for the Hebrews.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Banker Jesse Seligman drew by cable Thursday on Baron Hirsch, of Paris, for the 12,- 000,000 francs, or $2,400,000, which comprises the fund the income of which is to be used to assist poor Hebrew immigrants in America. The draft was immediately honored.

O'Brien Adjourned a Bankrupt.

DUBLIN, March 14.—The court has adjudged Mr. William O'Brien a bankrupt on the petition of Lord Salisbury in the latter's suit to recover the sum of £1,700, the costs in the action
for libel brought against him by Mr.
O'Brien, and in which the latter was nominated.

Has Killed Four Men.

WINCHESTER, Ky., March 14.—At Stanton, this county, a young man just been arrested, charged with the murder of a man named Hatcher in Powell county, John and Henry Angell
in Lee county, and an unknown colored man in Ohio.

TRICKS OF THE TIN PLATE BARONS.

No part of the McKinley bill has been more bitterly denounced by the democracy than the increased duty on tin-plate.
It has been termed class legislation. It has been denounced as adding a heavy burden of taxation on the people. Yet it can safely be affirmed that no one single article so well illustrates the extortionate private taxation of the consumer for the benefit of a few foreign producers, which a free trade tariff encourages, as tin plate. No one single article so well illustrates the pressing necessity for a protective tariff as this one.

In 1885 the price of tin-plate, delivered f. o. b. in Great Britain for shipment to this country, reached a lower point than before, having declined with the price of sheet-iron. It was perfectly natural that tin-plate should decline in price with the iron, which composed 98 parts in 100 of it. But this decline in price did not suit the British tin plate makers. In June, 1885, they formed a "combination" to put up prices. They raised the export price of tin plate 24 1/2 cents per box between July, 1885, and July, 1886. This on the 6,000,000 boxes per year which they report that they sent to the United States, amounted to an additional private tax of $1,470,000 per year on the American consumers of tin plate, which the British makers put into their private pockets. Did any of our free trade tariff citizens on this side of the water raise their voices against this private tax on the tin plate of American people? Not at all. The existence of this "trust" was a matter of public and official record in England, but they were too busy in trying to prove how cheap the free trade tariff system would be in this country, and too busy in denouncing the protective tariff system to look up such a trifling as the tin plate tax of $1,475,000 per year upon us under the former system.

So we went on, with our free trade tariff votaries showing how cheap their system would be, and with the British free trade tariff votaries piling their prices on our tin-plate until early in 1890 when the prices amounted to 62 1/2 cents per box more than the price of July, 1885, when the British "trust" began its operations. This forced up an annual tax of over $5,500 per year on the American consumers of tinplate, extorted from them by this British trust. A fair sample of free trade tariff cheapness we do not require. It illustrates the truth that when we depend upon another country for what we economically make ourselves, we always buy the commodity at their prices and not at ours, which prices are always regulated by the greed of the seller, to our loss. If we competition alone can give us cheap prices, and home competition furnishes best under protection. For instance, galvanized sheet-iron, which is sufficiently protected, has declined under home competition from 5 1/2 cents per pound in 1885 to 4 1/2 cents in 1889, following the cheapening of iron by the same protective tariff system.

MAYOR ST. JOHN'S CANDIDACY.

Mayor St. John's platform in his present candidacy is one which all friends of good government can endorse. As will be remembered the mayor's determined stand on the saloon question early in his administration drew upon him the wrath of the saloon element, and made him the target for abuse.

Before three months had passed the lives had been drawn for a trial of strength. On one hand were the supporters of law and order, on the other those who clamored for a return to the "wide-open" policy of earlier years. The lines were only the more sharply defined as days went by, but not until now has the time come for a test. Feeling that a united stand against the unscrupulous element in city politics was needed, representative men of both parties have joined in calling upon Mayor St. John to stand as a candidate on a platform free from partisanship, but emphasizing the principle of strict enforcement of law. It was in response to this call that he entered the field. His record during the two years just ending is sufficient to prove that any trust reposed in him will not be betrayed and his declaration of principles to those who called upon him is all that is needed to show that his views mirror those of the majority of the better element of Janesville people.

We authorize our advertised druggists to sell you Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with La Grippe and will use this remedy according to directions, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We make this offer, because of the wonderful cure effected by Dr. King's New Discovery during last season's epidemic. Have heard of no case which it failed. Try it. Trust bottles for sale at F. Sherer & Co. drugstore. Large bottles $1.00.
For a disordered liver use Beecham's Pills.

The Tobacco Reporter sensibly warns farmers against rushing into the raising of tobacco on the strength of this year's high prices. It points out that the high prices of 1884 brought low prices for several years after, through over production and bad quality, the result of inexperienced producers. It explains that tobacco-raising cannot fairly be tested in a single year, and declares that even for experienced persons "the tobacco crop partakes more of the nature of a lottery than any product yielded by soil."

A Denver paper states that out of forty cases of homicide and murder in that city in three years, but one person paid the penalty for his murderous act, and his fate was due to the fact that he had no money to beat the law with. It is not believed that money is as effective in blinding justice in the older states as on the frontier, and especially in the mining region. But a great many more people need hanging than are likely to be hung in most communities.

Rhode Island republicans placed the name of Governor Lodi at the head of their state ticket this spring, and then by acclamation nominated a fall state ticket. The convention was harmonious and enthusiastic, and put itself on record emphatically as favoring the policy of reciprocity which has assumed a concrete form in Mr. Lodi's successful negotiations with the Republic of Brazil. In fact, the resolution on this subject comprises the whole of the Rhode Island republican platform.

The widow of General Barrard, who was assassinated by the Guatemalan anarchists on an American vessel, has filed a claim of $1,000,000 against the United States for the loss of her husband. She has a just grievance, but the valuation is absurdly high. Railroads in this country rate better men at $5,000. The government can furnish her a husband worth three or four South Americans.

Grand plans are made for a splendid exhibit of Mexican products in the Chicago Fair. The exhibit will be largely historical and educational in its character. The Cubans also are organizing a large exhibit.

Sherman and Windom left little to speak of in the way of property, and yet these men will be remembered when the millionaires are forgotten.

SOME WELL KNOWN FACES.

The Fighter of the Chinabug.

FRANCIS HUNTINGDON SNOW.
Francis Huntington Snow, chancellor of the University of Kansas at Lawrence, was born at Fitchburg, Mass., June 29, 1840. He was educated at Williams college and Andover Theological seminary. He has been connected with the University of Kansas since its foundation in 1866. Professor Snow's tireless work has built up the large natural history collections of the university, but his greatest fame is due to his successful experiments looking to the destruction of the chinabug.

An Old Settler Dead.
BEAVER DAM, Wis., March 14.—Hiram N. Justice, who settled in Beaver Dam about forty-four years ago, died at 6 o'clock Friday morning, aged 69 years. About a year ago he had a severe attack of the grip, from which he did not recover, and hemorrhages set in and terminated his life. He leaves a widow but no children.

Important Wisconsin Land Decision.
MADISON, Wis., March 14.—Judge Dunn, of the United States court, has rendered a decision in the case of the Land & River Improvement Company of West Superior against Thomas Hardon, of Ashland, in favor of the company. It involves the title to $350,000 worth of land in Superior.

An Illinois Farmer's Loss.
DIXON, Ill., March 14.—Jerry Hetler lost his barn and the entire contents Thursday night, including forty head of cattle, six head of horses, milk wagons, farm machinery and other property.

Suicide at the Kankakee Asylum.
KANKAKEE, Ill., March 14.—Dennis Hefferman of Ottawa, Ill., a patient at the Kankakee asylum, took carbolic acid Thursday night with probable suicidal intent. He died in a short time.

Soldiers Down with the Grip.
OMAHA, Neb., March 14.—Two hundred and fifty soldiers at Fort Omaha are down with the grip. The hospital is filled with sick men and the matter is becoming serious in the barracks.

Reduced Freight Rates in Missouri.
ST. LOUIS, March 14.—The lower branch of the state legislature has passed a bill reducing railroad freight rates 25 per cent. on grain, cattle, farm machinery and building material.

Loss of a French Ship.
LONDON, March 14.—The French ship Frere et Seur has been wrecked on one of the Sicily islands. Three of her crew were drowned.

Experiments at the Wisconsin agricultural station show that from two to three and one-half tons of sugar per acre can be produced from sugar beets.

"That Miss Jones is a nice looking girl, isn't she?"
"Yes, and she'll be the belle of the town if it wasn't for one thing."
"What's that?"
"She has catarrh so bad it is unpleasant to be near her. She has tried a dozen things and nothing helps her. I am sorry for her, but that doesn't make it any disagreeable for one to be around her."

Now if she had used Dr. Hagar's Catarrh Remedy, there would have been nothing of the kind said, for it will cure almost every time.

MUCH SUFFERING.

Further News of the Great Blizzard in Great Britain.

LONDON, March 14.—While throughout the London district a thaw has set in, there are no signs of moderating the severity of the weather in the southwest of England. A heavy snowstorm prevailed Thursday night in Devonshire and Cornwall, considerably adding to the sufferings of the farmers of those counties, and still further impeding the resumption of traffic on the railroads of the southwest. As for the country roads they are utterly impassable, huge snowdrifts completely preventing any communication between the different towns and villages. This state of affairs naturally is very severe upon numerous villages which depend almost entirely upon the towns in their neighborhood for supplies of food and fuel. In fact, in the case of a number of small villages the isolation is already causing considerable anxiety, as actual starvation stares them in the face, should the weather not moderate shortly sufficiently to allow them to be revictualled. In addition to the enormous losses suffered by the farmers in sheep and cattle, which have either been frozen to death in the snow, or which have been smothered beneath the mountainous snowdrifts to be found on all sides, large numbers of horses have perished in a like manner.

One of the curious incidents of the storm was the snowing up near Exeter of one of those old-fashioned four-horse coaches which still do duty in many parts of England in default of more modern methods of transit. The unfortunate passengers were compelled to camp by the roadside near the snowbound coach. They tried to make themselves as comfortable as possible, built a fire, improvised a rude hut of branches torn from trees bordering on the highway and kept up their spirits as best they could. The almost entire lack of food among the party soon reduced them to a state of semi-starvation. When rescued the entire party was badly frozen and in a state of complete exhaustion. The facts which have come to light in connection with snowed-up trains and particularly in connection with snowed-up vehicles only give some idea of what has taken place, for hundreds at least of such conveyances have been snowed up at various points and the experiences of many of them will never be told.

As an offset to the thousands who have been thrown out of work by the storm, thousands, it may be added, have been employed in clearing away the snow on the railroads west of Taunton. As another instance of the work to be done and the sufferings experienced it may be noted that on the railroad west of Taunton, between Totnes and Plymouth alone, there are five trains snowed up.

FLOODS AND STORMS IN RUSSIA.
ST. PETERSBURG, March 14.—Floods which have followed the recent heavy snowstorms have destroyed one-half the winter crops in many places in southwest Russia. The Vistula has overflowed its banks and has inundated a great part of Warsaw. The inhabitants of that city are in distress owing to the floods, the severity of which can be judged from the fact that the parts which form a part of the fortifications have been in parts destroyed by the rising waters.

WINTER DOWNS SOUTH.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 14.—A northerly wind and a cloudy sky, combined with the weather Thursday until about 4 o'clock p. m. when a fine, cold rain began to fall. By 6:30 o'clock the rain had changed to sleet, and the ground was soon covered with an icy slush. About 10 o'clock it began snowing, and a veritable blizzard set in, which kept up until 1 o'clock a. m. when the snow ceased. No storm as severe as this has occurred in this region for many years.

DESTRUCTION OF CANNERS.
DIXON, Ill., March 14.—A furious snowstorm raged here all Thursday. Snow has fallen to the depth of 8 inches. It is one of the most violent snowstorms which has ever visited this section. Trains which have arrived report the fall of snow in the Indian territory as unprecedented. Reports received from Paris and Sherman say that the storm is general in those sections and great fears are entertained that the fruit crop will be destroyed.

FIERCE GALE AT PITTSBURGH.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 14.—At 11 o'clock Friday morning a gale of wind reaching a velocity of 40 miles an hour passed over this city, causing considerable damage to property and injuring several persons. The signal office reports that for a few minutes it attained a velocity of 43 miles an hour, the highest ever known in this city. The walls of the Germania bank and Walden buildings, the scene of Wednesday's fire, were rocked by the wind, and a large section of the bank wall fell upon the roof of the Merchants & Manufacturers' Insurance Company building, breaking through the roof and three floors of the building. The occupants barely escaped with their lives. Chimneys on mills and houses throughout both cities are reported damaged or blown down. Several of the largest plate glass windows in the city were blown out. That at the jewelry store of G. W. Biggs & Co. fell in and severely injured several persons in the city. Near the city, the wind blew over a large number of derricks, causing considerable damage.

Bismarck for Arbitrator.
BERLIN, March 14.—It is rumored that Prince Bismarck will be asked to act as arbitrator in the Behring sea question.

Good Looks.
Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of the vital organs. If the blood is active, you have a bilious look, if your stomach be disordered you have a dyspeptic look and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alternative and tonic; acts directly on these vital organs. Cures pimples, blotches, boils, and gives a good complexion. Sold at F. Sherer & Co's drugstore; 50 cents per bottle.

The eye specialist, will be at the Myers House one day only, Friday March 27. Defective vision from congenital or acquired cause, successfully remedied when in the skill of the optician to remedy. Dr. Mincer has devoted his life to this work, and invites those who have had trouble in having the eyes fitted, or all in need of glasses, to investigate his method of adapting glasses to the human eye. Call and see him. Consultation and examination free.
Respectfully,
DR. B. MINCER.

Allow me to add my tribute to the efficacy of Ely's Cream Balm. I was suffering from a severe attack of influenza and catarrh and was induced to try your remedy. The result was most successful. I could hardly articulate and in less than twenty-four hours the catarrhal symptoms and my hoarseness disappeared and I was able to sing a heavy role in grand opera with voice unimpaired. I strongly recommend it to all singers.—Wm. J. Hamilton, leading basso of the U. S. Grand Opera Co.

FOSTER GOES TO SPAIN.

His Mission is the Completion of a Reciprocity Treaty with Cuba.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The fact that Hon. J. W. Foster, ex-minister to Spain, and James G. Blaine, Jr., started for Europe last Wednesday on the Tautois was kept rather quiet, and little save the fact that they had gone was published. The mission of the former is an important one and of general interest, for he goes to Spain to further the reciprocity treaty between the United States and Cuba through the mother country, Spain. Mr. Foster has been prominent in the reciprocity negotiations with South American countries. His experience in Spain as minister and his connection with the Latin-American countries has made him very valuable to Mr. Blaine and the state department. It is a well-known fact that the next reciprocity proclamation will be with Cuba, and Mr. Blaine has bent his greatest energies to this end. Mr. Foster goes over to smooth out and arrange some of the final matters. The sugar question with Cuba is becoming of vital importance. The enormous production of beet sugar in Europe has so seriously affected the cane sugar production of Cuba that, with the exception of the Spanish peninsula, Cuba is completely ruined. Hence the island is now practically dependent on the market of the United States. Cuba is bound up in this trade; all her interests, such as plantations, railroads and hundreds of minor industries in the agriculture and mechanical trades, depend upon it, and hence her great desire for this treaty. Mr. Blaine has been very busy on it, and the departure of Mr. Foster means that the negotiations are nearly completed.

HEIRESS TO MILLIONS.

A Sioux City Woman Becomes Possessor of an English Estate.

SIoux CITY, Ia., March 14.—Mrs. Mabel Kille, the wife of a Sioux City contractor, has fallen heir to property in England worth over $10,000,000. She inherits the property through her father. Her mother and father died soon after her birth, which occurred shortly after their arrival in this country. She was cared for by an aunt, educated at a Chicago convent, and taught school until two years ago, when she married Henry C. Kille. Her maternal grandfather, Lord Leicester, of London, transacted the business which brings her into a vast property, and he will arrive here next month to settle matters up.

Huston Still in Office.
WASHINGTON, March 14.—Treasury Huston returned to Washington Friday afternoon from a visit to his home in Connersville, Ind., where he had been on duty at the treasury department. Mr. Huston said he did not know how long he would retain his present office. He tendered his resignation to the president February 24 in order that his successor might be appointed during the session of the senate and he has not heard from the president one way or the other since.

Absconder Pope Reported Caught.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 14.—It is reported here that W. H. Pope, former teller of the City national bank, who disappeared March 1, 1890, with $70,000 of the bank's funds, has been caught. An indictment has been found against him, and it is believed the papers are now in the hands of officers who know where Pope is and will shortly return him here. It is said that a part of the money will be recovered.

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. Osmond,
Lowell, Mass.
"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup, and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. Kneeland,
Conway Ark.
H. A. Newman, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

WEALTH IN OUR BEETS.

Rock County Sugar Makers' Bright Prospects.

GOOD CROP GROWN IN 1890.

At Experiment Stations in the Vicinity of Janesville, It Was Fully Proven That There is No Lack of Suitable Soil.

Rock county is in every way adapted to the raising of sugar beets. So says the bulletin of the Wisconsin State Agricultural Experiment Station. Six varieties of beets were experimented on and they can be raised from 81 cents to $1.38 a ton. This does not include the cost of harvesting and delivery, which may be considered equal to that of growing the crop.

If the yield in all parts of the state is equal to this, farmers should certainly consider this subject seriously, for it will prove more profitable than anything yet attempted on a farm.

Fred Burton, of this city, tried the experiment last year. He raised three kinds of beets and on one area of 817 square feet he grew 600 pounds, the percentage of sugar in the juice was 14.77 and 32,000 pounds to the acre.

E. G. Snyder of Clinton, also tried the experiment and the percentage of sugar in the juice of the beets raised by him was 15.17 and 51.5 per cent pure.

Beets usually bring $4.00 per ton at factory. This price is paid for beets averaging 12 or 14 per cent of sugar; for each per cent above the standard a bonus of 25 cents is usually paid. Thus, with the standard at 14 per cent, beets yielding 16 per cent sugar would bring $4.50 per ton, and those yielding 18 per cent would bring $5.00 per ton.

Seventy samples of beets raised in the state were sent to the station for analysis. The results of the analysis showed a very wide range, according to the kind of seed used, the manner of growing, skill of the grower, etc.; the lowest of all analyses showed 6.48 per cent and the highest 18.79 per cent of sugar in the juice. Rock county is especially adapted, the report says, to sugar beet culture.

In regard to growing beets for the manufacture of sugar, farmers should first of all understand that it is a new line of agricultural effort, and that a profitable crop requires close care, much patience, and a very considerable amount of labor of that kind for which they have had little training or experience. No matter what kind of machinery may be invented, the fact still remains that weeds will spring up close about the beets, and that these must be removed that the beets must be thinned, and a considerable amount of painstaking labor applied to secure a maximum yield of beets containing a high percentage of sugar. Any abuse of the crop not only diminishes the yield of beets in weight, but also the percentage of sugar, thereby making a useless out on the profits.

The farmer who has been accustomed to breaking his corn land with a sulky plow, planting with a riding corn planter, and tending the crop with a sulky cultivator, will find a great change when he undertakes to grow beets. The sugar beet is a thoroughbred, and must be treated as such. When it is, other conditions being favorable, the profits will be found very satisfactory. It is well for farmers not to anticipate growing rich out of a few beet crops. Experience has shown that money from the beet comes much the same as that earned in any other way, and only those whose soil is adapted to the crop and who grow it judiciously will make more than the bare expenses.

If Rock county farmers undertake beet growing, it is suggested that the crop should occur in rotation. The farmers of Europe have found that occupying the land with a beet crop is superior to allowing it to fallow a season. California beet growers find the crop valuable to precede barley, as the extra yield and quality of the grain makes the barley crop following beets much more valuable than when following itself or some other cereal.

If the farmer living in the vicinity of a beet-sugar factory gives up one-fifth or one-sixth of his plowed land to the beet crop, he should aim to grow as large an amount of produce from the remaining acres as though none of the land were occupied by the beets.

Professor Henry suggests that meetings be called and definite lines of procedure marked out. At these meetings let the farmers pledge themselves each to grow not less than three acres of beets in field for the coming season for the purpose of studying the cultivation of what is to most of them a new plant, on their farms. At these meetings the supply, methods of planting and tillage, machinery to be used and kindred questions can be discussed, and much information gained and given. Genuine sugar beet seed is expensive, and must yet be imported from foreign countries. The common sugar beet seed furnished by seed dealers at a low cost, though not suitable for factory purposes, will prove entirely satisfactory for the experiments in cultivation. By planting this common seed seed, very little outlay will be incurred, and the beets raised will prove a profitable crop for feeding cattle and sheep at the farms.

Each farmer, in addition to planting the common beet seed here recommended, should plant some genuine imported sugar beet seed, a portion of three or four rows in at least two rows of the beet plant. When the beets from genuine seed are matured, samples can be sent to this station for analysis.

Dissolution of Partnership. The partnership heretofore existing between E. M. Hardy and W. H. Parker, under the firm name and style of Hardy & Parker, doing business at No. 31 South Main street, was this date dissolved by mutual consent, and said E. M. Hardy assumes all the liabilities of said partnership and he is authorized to receive money and compound claims due to the partnership, and give full receipt and acquittance for the same. He will continue the business at the same place. Dated, March 12, 1891.

MISS SHAWAN WITH JARBEAU

A Janesville young lady will make her sweet voice heard at the Windsor theatre to-morrow afternoon. She is Miss Flo B. Shawan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Shawan, and she joined the Jarbeau company last evening. Her first appearance will be at the afternoon performance at the Windsor theatre to-morrow afternoon.

Miss Shawan has a very pleasing voice, is an exceptionally good elocutionist, and has shown marked dramatic ability. For a week she traveled with the Danks' Opera Company, and made a decided hit wherever she appeared. Her stage presence is fine and she will doubtless make a success on the stage. Her present engagement is on trial and no contract has been made. That she will make a success and be retained with the company is very probable.

MAY GET MEAT FROM CHICAGO.

Janesville Meat Men Discuss a New Departure—Cattle are Scarce.

Good beef cattle for the local market are said to be very scarce. Farmers who have heretofore been able to supply the city with a dozen animals, preferring to sell their grain at the advanced price rather than feed it.

"It will not be long before all the meat dealers in Janesville will get their dressed beef from Chicago," said one of our east side dealers to-day. "It is costing us more and more money each year to ride through the country after good stock. Then we have to bring it to the slaughter house, dress and prepare it for the market. This all requires time and expense so that by the time the meat is ready to get out in the market it has cost us more than the same meat had it been purchased in Chicago."

AN OTHER RATTING MAIN.

The Dogs Fitted so Quietly That Few Heard of It.

Janesville has been favored with another ratting main. This was one on the quiet, however, and only a few were there. George Piro's dog "Fanny" broke the record. The other dog was a bull. The bull dog was placed in the pit, but in exactly 60 seconds the rats were all dead, and the bull dog was winning for more. The other dog had killed her ten rats at the last match in 62 seconds, and her backers were dismayed at the prospect. When she was placed in the pit, however, her rats were all dead, and the "audience" went wild.

FOR MAYOR OF CHICAGO.

Hempstead Washburn Nominated by the Republican Convention.

Chicago, March 14.—(Special).—Hempstead Washburn was nominated by the Republicans for mayor to-day.

BRIEF LOCAL MENTION.

Republican caucuses to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

J. C. Eohlin transacted business in Stoughton to-day.

Politicians of both parties have been doing hard work to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. David Porter, of Lake Geneva, are visiting friends in the city.

The Fibreman societies of the city propose observing St. Patrick's day, March 17.

Mrs. H. M. Hays and Miss Florio Hays, of Beloit, visited Janesville last evening.

E. J. Kent & Co. have removed their stock of wall paper and paints to 122 West Milwaukee street.

Members of Washington Camp Patriotic Order Sons of America, join in a dance at Liberty Hall to-night.

Buy the household sewing machine of the old reliable agent, Will H. Graves, No. 11 South Main street and avoid lawsuits.

America Lodge No. 26, Daughters of Rebecca, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

Mrs. O. B. Conrad has returned from New York where she has been studying vocal music. Mrs. Conrad's friends are surprised to hear her sweet soprano voice in place of the former contralto.

The friends of the Bishop Welles school and those who are willing to give the continuance of that enterprise their impartial consideration, are requested to read the communication in regard to it in this issue.

Frank Stevens, the polite and accommodating clerk at the Grand Hotel, is visiting friends at Milwaukee for a few days. O. B. Moore, the night clerk at the Stevens, is also during the latter's absence.

The Beloit Weekly Citizen has been much improved by the substitution of home print for "patent inside." Both the daily and the weekly Citizen have been much strengthened under Wallace E. Brown's management.

Let every republican in the city attend the ward caucuses this evening, and unite in placing none but good men in nomination for the several places to be filled. Do this and the republican ticket will meet with favor among the people and will be elected.

All young men of the city are invited to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian League, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will be a friendly meeting for young men at that time, with good speaking and good singing. Rooms over the Chicago store.

Tickets for the dedication party of the Janesville Light Infantry are for sale at King & Kelly's, R. W. McLean, Stearns & Baker's, Prentice & Evenson's, A. F. Hall & Co., J. S. Ford's, Palmer & Stevens, Knapp & Allen's, F. H. Beck's, Barnham & Co's, E. B. Heimstreet, the Business Men's Association rooms and by members of the company. Tickets are $1.00.

Proprietary medicine manufacturers are waging war on firms who sell their goods at cut rates. Many firms who do a large business in general stores and grange supply houses are in the habit of buying patent medicines in large quantities and selling the goods at a slight advance over the wholesale price. Druggists protest against the practice and claim that their business suffers materially in consequence of rate cutting. Janesville druggists have received circulars stating that they will hereafter be protected and that the "cutters" will not be sold goods except on contract that the goods are sold at schedule prices.

JUMPED FROM A TRAIN

Miss Ingeborg Oleson's Desperate Exploit.

HER MIND UNBALANCED.

While Traveling From Janesville to Norway She Becomes Violent, and Throws Herself From a Train—The News Comes in a Private Message.

Wary of life among strangers and with her frail constitution daily weakened by the encroachments of an incurable disease, Miss Ingeborg Oleson started from Janesville to her home in Norway. There she had a mother, a sister, and two brothers with whom she hoped to meet and remain for the remainder of her life, which she could not help believing would be but a few weeks at most.

She had been cared for at the county house in Johnston, and it was thought she had gained sufficient strength to undertake the long journey. Accordingly arrangements were made, a ticket was procured, and last Wednesday she started from this city in company with her brother-in-law.

Before leaving Janesville she manifested some doubts about her strength holding out to undergo the hardships of so long a voyage, but at the last moment she resolved to go, and left her Janesville acquaintances in the best of spirits. Arriving in Chicago some time before the departure of the eastern bound train, her brother-in-law made all necessary arrangements for her trip east, and bid her farewell at the hotel, being compelled to return on an early train.

"Miss Ingeborg Oleson jumped off a train last night. She is now in charge of police department. Send some one to bring her home."

This was the dispatch that astonished her acquaintances in this city when it reached them on Thursday morning.

While Miss Oleson was no inmate of the asylum at Johnston it was thought that she was crazy, and it is supposed that during the long journey before her, she jumped from the cars in Chicago as the train started.

No word has been received since the first dispatch, and it is inferred that she is now on her way east.

SHALL WE HAVE A SEMINARY?

Promoters of Bishop Welles School Ask This Question.

The second year of Bishop Welles school will close in June. Now is the time to engage teachers, and make arrangements for the future. The record of this school is testified to by the full approval of the parents of every young lady who has been received on its roll during the present year. The testimonials published some time ago, speak for last year. Still we cannot say that the project has been an unqualified success, the expenditures having exceeded the income by a considerable sum.

This is owing not so much to lack of patronage as to irregularity in attendance, parents frequently keeping their daughters out of part of a term, the school losing thereby.

Now we desire to know how many pupils will enter for the fall term of 1891, under the following conditions:

Pupils must enter for the year and be willing to subject themselves to the discipline of the school.

Pupils withdrawn during the term will be charged in full for that term, except in cases of severe illness, when the pupil will share the loss equally with the promoters.

Other rules will be the same as heretofore.

While this school is not widely known, and with not a cent of endowment, we believe that the course of study and the work done has been as thorough and beneficial as in many seminaries of greater pretensions. It certainly presents the advantages of putting within the reach of those of moderate means, and laudable ambition for their children; the opportunity of giving their daughters a liberal education, not only in the solid English branches, but in languages, music and good moral training.

To attain these we must send our daughters away to boarding schools of support by our good will and substantial assistance, these also are working to make such an institution a success at home.

Pupils intending to enter for 1891-'92 must send in their names before the first of April to any one of the promoters. Respectfully yours,

Mrs. F. F. STEVENS,
Mrs. PLINY NORRIS SS,
Mrs. JOSEPH BOSTWICK.

FUNERAL OF JOHN FENN.

Services Held at the Home of Charles W. Wisch.

Mrs. John Fenn arrived in the city last evening from Stockton, California, bringing the remains of her husband, who died last Monday evening. Mrs. Fenn left Stockton Monday noon. The bereaved woman was met at the Janesville depot by a large number of friends, and the remains were taken to the home of Charles W. Wisch, South River street. Funeral services were held at Mr. Wisch's home at 10 o'clock this morning, conducted by Rev. James Siddell, of Trinity church, after which the remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for burial, the pall bearers being Messrs. William Fathen, O. E. Brown, A. W. Bauman, Orie O'Brien, L. O. O'Brien, John McCarre.

Milwaukee Family Nearly Smothered in Their Burning Home.

MILWAUKEE, March 14.—Charles Gu-rack's grocery store, at 1455 Sixth street, was completely gutted by the fire early this morning. The fire started in the store room and spread rapidly. The stifling smoke overpowered the sleeping family above, and it was with great difficulty that they were saved.

"THE MAGAZINE IN A CHURCH."

A Novel Entertainment Arranged by the Ladies of Court Street.

Promises of a very pleasant entertainment is held out by the ladies of Court Street church for next week. Friday evening they will open for the benefit of their friends the pages of popular magazines. There will be presented groups suggested by the illustrations in The Century, Harpers, St. Nicholas and Scribner's. As each group is shown the part of the story bearing upon that illustration will be read. The programme with the exception of readings and music is as follows:

1. From a painting by Gottleib: Scenes from Little Fauntleroy.
2. "So this is Little Fauntleroy."
3. "I used to think I might be president."
4. "The old apple woman."
5. "Are you the ear?"
6. "Just lean on me."
7. Lord Fauntleroy writes an order.
8. "I wonder how beautiful you are."
9. "Shall I love you?"
10. "Are you sure you want me?"

Republishing exercises will be held in the various wards this evening at 7:30. First ward republicans will meet at the west side engine house. Second ward, at the east side engine house. Third ward, at the court house. Fourth ward at Green & Nicholson's paper warehouse, 58 South River street, and Fifth ward, at George Kestner's office, corner of Center avenue and Holmes street.

Many names are being mentioned in connection with the republican ward nominations this evening, but no name has not centered sufficiently upon any one to state for a certainty who will be selected. It appears that no one is seeking for place, and the republicans will be left free to select for themselves. There are some good and strong names mentioned in connection with the aldermanic nominations.

Clinton has a Tammany club of forty members, all of whom are pledged to vote for license at the spring election.

CHIPS OF LOCAL IMPORT.

Silver for the Grand.

Landlord J. F. Sweeney, at the Grand Hotel, has just received an elegant new silver service made to his order by the Fairport Manufacturing Company of New Bedford, Massachusetts. The set consists of two individual coffee pots, six sugar bowls, six spoon holders, and twenty-four individual cream pitchers. Each piece bears the inscription "The Grand," in script.

Rev. Dr. Brown II.

During the past week Dr. W. F. Brown has been enjoying a touch of the grip, at least, he has rejoiced that it was only a touch. He conducted his Thursday evening meeting, however, and expects to preach on Sunday morning and evening as usual. The marriage of Mr. J. G. Smith and Miss Belkirk, March 11, was Dr. Brown's 1021 wedding in Janesville.

Thanks to Rev. M. Evans. At the regular meeting of W. H. Sargent Post, G. A. R., last evening, a vote of thanks was ordered sent to Rev. Evans of the First M. E. church, for the Sherman memorial sermon preached by him a week ago Sunday, and with which the G. A. R. boys were very much pleased.

Big Shoe Factory To Move.

The great Douglas shoe factory, of Brockton, Mass., is seeking a location in the west. The little city of Franklin Grove, in northern Illinois, has offered to donate $6,000 if the plant is located there. How much will Janesville capitalists offer?

His Foot Split Open.

George Bassett, while at work for Frank Campbell, at Koshkonong, chopping wood, had the misfortune to cut his foot. He struck it on the top and divided it into halves. He was taken to Milton where it was found necessary to put nine stitches in it.

Alligators as German Favors.

Greely Blom, of this city, is mentioned as among the guests at a german given at Hotel Indian River, Rock Lodge, Florida. The affair was the society event of the season. Among the favors were young alligators with ribbons on their tails.

Sunday Will be Fair.

Forecast for Janesville and vicinity—Fair with stationary temperature. The temperature as observed by E. B. Heimstreet during the last twenty-four hours was as follows:

William Van Zandt Arrested For Bigamy.

A WHITE-HAIRED CULPRIT.

Judging From the Complaint Made in Walworth County, Young Van Zandt Got His Training in Mormonism At Home.

Out of state prison just six days William Van Zandt has again been placed under arrest. This time it is for bigamy. Van Zandt was sent to Waukon from Rock county on a charge of larceny and served three years. He was released March 6 and Thursday was arrested in Watseka on a charge of bigamy, having it is said, married Isabella Stevens, in September, 1886, at Walworth, Walworth county, while he had another wife living. He is about sixty-five years old.

Van Zandt's son, "Lee Erwin" is now serving a term for bigamy. To all appearances he got his training in Mormon practices without going away from home.

The elder Van Zandt was confined to the Rock county jail last week waiting for trial on a charge of forgery. Some time ago he conveyed Ezra Goodrich, of Milton, into buying a promissory note. The note was signed by two respectable men, and Goodrich gave thirty dollars and a quantity of clothing for it.

His hearing was set for Tuesday, and no sooner was the case settled than a Walworth county officer arrested him on a charge of forgery, and he is now living in the Walworth county jail.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Starlight" was given before a full house at the Myers last evening. Excepting for the clever work of Jarbeau herself, the play was hardly up to its old time standard, the changes in the make-up of the company not being for the better. Good dancing and bright songs saved the piece from monotony, but much of the usual sparkle was missing. Next season Jarbeau will appear in an entirely new comedy which has not yet been named.

H. H. Ragan, the celebrated lecturer, talked on "Alseks" at the Congregational church last evening. His lecture was entertaining and instructive and was illustrated by excellent stereoscopic views.

Mr. Ragan described the resources and possibilities of the "unknown state" most graphically.

The May Bretonne company will play a week's engagement at Lyman's Opera House beginning Monday evening March 23. The company have a number of new players as well as many of those who were in Janesville last season.

The Clemenceau Case will be presented at Myers Grand Opera House on the evening of April 18. The company is the best on the road—Miss Sybil Johnstone taking the part of the model.

Jarbeau and her company went to Chicago this morning and will open a week's engagement at the Windsor theatre to-morrow afternoon.

No More Kings.

The word of the Lord by night. To the watching Pilgrims came. As they sat by the seaside, And filled their hearts with flame. God said, I am tired of kings, I suffer them no more. Up to my ear the morning brings The outrage of the poor.

Lo, I uncover the land Which I hid of old time in the west, And seest thou uncover the statue When he has wrought his best. I will have never a noble; No lineage count me great; Fishers and choppers and plowmen Shall constitute a state.

My will fulfilled shall be, To the watching Pilgrims I speak My thunderbolt has eyes to see His way home to the mark. —Ralph Waldo Emerson.

A Woman's Sight for Freedom.

Oh, to be alone! To escape from the work, the play, The talking every day; To be alone from all I have done, And all that remains to do. To escape—yes, even from you, My only love, and be Alone and free.

Could I only stand Between gray moor and gray sky Where the winds and the plovers cry, And no man is at hand; And be free to feel and blow On my rain wet face, and know I am free—not yours, but my own—Free, and alone!

For the soft freight And the home of your heart, my dear, They're waiting always here. I want to stand upright, And to cool my eyes in the air, And to see how my back can bear Burden—to try, to know, To learn, to grow!

I am only you! I am yours, part of you, your wife! And I have no other life, I cannot think, cannot go; I cannot breathe, cannot see; There is "us," but there is not "me"; And were, at your kiss I grow Contented so.

The Old Days.

Oh, those old days, those near yet far off days! So near, so far, so full of tender lay! When sparrowthrift hearts all went a-spraying: Cared naught for form, or statute laws, or king; But lived in melodies!

Oh, those old days, those near yet far off days! Paged with dead legends, winsome with sweet words; Whose pages, filled with tender's murmurings, The pain of life in idle backward brings Bewitched with memories!

Oh, those old days, those truest, truest days! Though life is sweeter for their loveliest grace; Whose heart but lingers near their boundaries, Conning them o'er with misty, yearning eyes, And for the future prays! —E. L. Wakeman.

Aim High.

Aim at the highest prize; if there thou fail Thy haply reach to one not far below. Strive first to go to compass; if too slow Thy speed, the attempt may never the less avail. The next best post to conquer? —Bishop Mant.

Silent Heroism.

To fight alone is very brave, But gallant, I know, Who charge with the bosom The cavalry of love.

Who win, and nations don't see, Who fall, and none observe, Whose dying eyes no country Regard with patriot love.
